Stockholm, Auguſt 28. Laſt Wedneſday all the four Orders aſſembled in Pleno at the uſual Places, for the firſt Time ſince the Revolution. The Marſhal of the Diet opened the Plenum of the Nobility with a long Panegyric upon the King, and congratulated the Houſe of Nobles on Tranquillity's being reſtored. After which the new Form of Government was read there as well as in all the other Orders.

The Propoſitions which his Majeſty made to the States Yeſterday in the Hall of the States were alſo read, and are as follow:

" Whereas the Affairs of the Government are by " Divine Providence brought into ſuch a Situation, " as to admit of the ſpeedy Concluſion of the Diet; " but, nevertheleſs, as the States neither will nor " can ſeparate before they have given that Aſſiſt- " ance to the King and Kingdom which the Go- " vernment requires in every Branch of it, his Ma- " jeſty has found it neceſſary to lay the following " Points before the States for their Deliberations:

" 1ſt, That the uſual Contributions may be " agreed to and reſolved by the States.

" 2d, That, according to ancient Cuſtom and " the Laws of the Kingdom, an extraordinary Sup- " ply may be furniſhed for the Expences of the " late King's Funeral, and for the Coronation.

" 3d, As his Majeſty cannot know how far theſe " two Articles above-mentioned, together with the " ordinary Revenues of the State, will be ſufficient " to anſwer the Neceſſities of the Kingdoms in theſe " Times, his Majeſty graciouſly invites the States, " according to the 47th Section of the Form of " Government, to chuſe certain Perſons of the " three Orders who direct the Affairs of the Bank, " with whom his Majeſty may deliberate upon the " Means to be uſed in certain Caſes, and in which " ſome Secrecy is neceſſary.

" 4thly, That the States, by the Meaſures they " take with regard to the Bank, put it in a Con- " dition, the ſooner the better, to aſſiſt in reſtoring " Money Affairs to ſome Order, in a Manner con- " ſiſtent with the Laws.

" The States will agree with his Majeſty, that " the Situation of the Kingdom requires, and that " the Wiſhes of the whole Country are, that this " Diet, which has now laſted Fourteen Months, to " the great Expence of the Kingdom, may ſpeedily " come to an End: And as the King is highly de- " ſirous, in theſe difficult Times, to eaſe his faithful " Subjects at leaſt in this Reſpect, it is his Ma- " jeſty's Pleaſure, That the States take theſe Points " into Conſideration immediately, in order that " he may receive their Report upon them within " Fourteen Days, within which Time they will " alſo find Opportunities to draw up the final Re- " ſolution of the Diet."

In conſequence of theſe his Majeſty's Propoſitions, the four Orders reſolved, that the Deputation of Revenues and Expences, and that of the Bank, ſhall immediately make the Project of the Contributions mentioned in the firſt and ſecond Points,

Points, and give their Report about the third and fourth.

It was alſo propoſed in the Houſe of Nobles, and agreed to by the other Orders, that all the four Orders ſhould wait on his Majeſty with a Deputation of One Hundred and Twenty Perſons, to return Thanks for his Majeſty's paternal Care, by which the Nation has been reſtored to it's true Liberty, and to deſire that a Medal may be ſtruck in Commemoration of this happy Event.

The King having appointed Count Horn to be one of the new Senators, he took his Place in the Senate Yeſterday.

Berlin, September 5. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of Pruſſia was brought to Bed on Monday laſt the 31ſt of Auguſt, of a Princeſs; and a Courier was immediately diſpatched to notify this Event to his Pruſſian Majeſty in Sileſia. Her Royal Highneſs and the young Princeſs both continue as well as can be expected.

On Sunday the 30th, Baron de Heiden arrived in ſix Days from the Hague, with the News of the Princeſs of Orange being happily delivered of a Prince. The ſame Day the Court appeared in Gala at Schoenhauſen, to congratulate her Majeſty and the Princeſs Dowager of Pruſſia on this happy Event.
